Recalling Facts

Recalling facts and Retelling stories are both reading strategies. Recalling facts and retelling stories are ways of remembering and showing the instructor that you know what you have just read. Both strategies aid in comprehension.

Directions: Chose a book to read. Then, answer the following questions about it. (This can be done by the child or by dictation from the child.)

1. Title of the book?

2. Author of the book?

3. What is the book about?

4. What happens at the end of the book?
